SEARCH

What do we do

Boardings Schools Ireland takes pride in finding the best school for your child/re. We want each family to be happy and to know that they have made the right choice to enable their child to excel in the chosen school.

We guide families through the school admissions process, ensuring that they are maximizing their child's chances of admission at their dream schools and taking the lead in managing timelines, application materials, and important deadlines.

A good admissions consultant will provide a tailored plan unique to your family's particular goals, there are a few major categories with which they can be particularly helpful, all of which will maximize your chances of admission at your top-choice independent schools.

SCHOOL SEARCH

CLASSIC SCHOOL
SEARCH
€2,500

PACKAGES

The Classic School Search comprises an in-depth consultation, followed by a list of schools recommended by our education consultant, all based on the specific needs of your family.

So how does the consultancy work?

Finding the best school for your child lies at the very heart of our consultancy work.

The Classic School Search provides you with a report including a list of schools recommended by us, following a consultation in which they find out everything relevant about your child, your family, your circumstances and what is important for you in a school.

We will be on hand for any follow-up advice or guidance you may need to move the process forward yourself and available for a follow up.

The classic school search is appropriate when families need help and advice in identifying schools but prefer to navigate the admissions process alone afterwards.

SCHOOL SEARCH

PREMIER SCHOOL
CONSULTANCY
€4,000

PACKAGES

The premier school consultancy is aimed at families who have a greater level of continuing support and advice than is catered for in the classic school search.

So how does the consultancy work?

Many families would like ongoing support and advice from a senior and experienced education consultant. They would like to navigate the entire admission process with their consultant alongside, contacting schools on their behalf, arranging introductions and being on hand to answer questions and resolve decisions.

Our expert educational consultant, who will have been carefully chosen to match your family's needs, will find out all about your requirements in an initial consultation. I will provide you with a report including a list of recommended schools depending on your particular circumstances. And after discussions with you by email, meetings, I will contact the schools on your behalf, arrange introductions and facilitate any meetings. I will also be available to support and advise about applications and anything else that might arise throughout the admissions process.

At an extra charge, we can accompany you on school visits or visit on your behalf. We charge €750 per day for this service and this includes a driver and lunch.

SCHOOL SEARCH

PREMIER PLUS
CONSULTANCY
€9,000

PACKAGES

We will help you with every aspect of finding the best boarding school for your child/ren.

So how does the consultancy work?

Our Premier Plus School Consultancy provides families with the highest possible level of support and advice.

The service is designed for families whose needs may be more complex. They may have several children with different requirements, considering a range of different kinds of school including boarding, as well as day schools. They may also be keen to explore a wide geographical area and considering a mixture of urban and rural environments.

We will provide hands on support from the moment they start to work with you until your children have been placed in schools of your choice. I will introduce you to key personnel in the schools, liaise with them on your behalf, work to promote the strength of your application as well as providing advice about the assessments and interview process.

As a Premier Plus client, the time the consultant will be able to devote to you will be considerably more than for a client of any other service we offer. Our consultant will be dedicated to ensuring that you find places at the right kind of school for each child.
